THE SPARTAN MODEL

INTEGRATED ACADEMIC MATRIX FOR EDUCATION ABROAD (IamEA)

A unit of International Studies and Programs, the Office for Education Abroad is committed to engaging the campus community in a collective partnership to provide valuable, high-quality and academically-sound education abroad and exchanges programming that expands opportunities for where, when and how students learn. Our Integrated Academic Matrix for Education Abroad, or “The Spartan Model”, aligns our mission and operations with the university’s strengths in thematic focus, regional expertise, and relationships.

EDUCATION ABROAD ADVISING CENTER

International Center – Room 108 | Hours: 8 am to 5 pm
Email: studyabroad@isp.msu.edu | Phone: (517) 353-8920 | Web: studyabroad.msu.edu

The Advising Center is staffed by Peer Advisers who not only studied abroad themselves, but have been trained by MSU to help other Spartans find a program abroad that suits their schedule, major and interests. “Education Abroad 101” presentations are offered daily and provide an overview of the entire education abroad process. Times and details can be found on the Education Abroad webpage.
