

EDUCATION ABROAD

2019 FALL EVENTS

Visit educationabroad.msu.edu and click on “events” for more details about the events below, current information meetings, and more! New events are added regularly.

OCT
9

DIVERSITY ABROAD PRESENTATION

October 9 • 3:00 pm • 303 International Center

This presentation is for ALL students who want to know why they should consider study abroad, but especially those who do not traditionally participate. This includes (but is not limited to) students of all racial/ethnic backgrounds, students with disabilities, LGBTQ students, STEM majors, religious minorities, first-generation college students, and students with high financial need.

OCT
16

UNPACKING YOUR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES

October 16 • 5:30 pm • 113 Student Services Building

Wondering how to talk about your experience abroad to employers? This workshop will help you explain your international experiences so that they are meaningful to employers and graduate schools. We'll discuss all the ways you can share your international experiences on your resume, and how talk about them in interviews.

NOV
8

FIRST-TIME TRAVELER WORKSHOP

November 8 • 10:00 am to 11:30 am • 201 International Center

Are you travelling abroad for the first time? The “First-time Traveler Workshop” will cover the basics from packing, flying, budgeting, communication, health, safety, and more. Staff from STA Travel, the Office for Education Abroad, and the Office of International Health and Safety will be presenting and available for questions. Space is limited and RSVP is required.

NOV
8

JMC EDUCATION ABROAD FAIR

November 8 • 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm
Club Spartan (Case Hall, 3rd floor)

Are you a JMC student interested in participating in education abroad? Come to the JMC Education Abroad Fair to find out about internships and study abroad programs sponsored by the James Madison College. For more information contact Max Olivero (oliverom@msu.edu).

NOV
8

PRE-DEPARTURE RESOURCE DAY

November 8 • 12:30 pm to 2:30 pm • 115 International Center

Getting ready to go abroad? Come talk to STA Travel about airfare and travel logistics, staff from the MSU Library about passport information, and get your Course Approval Form signed by college representatives from across campus (required for direct enroll or exchange programs).

EDUCATION ABROAD

2019 FALL EVENTS

Visit educationabroad.msu.edu and click on “events” for more details about the events below, current information meetings, and more! New events are added regularly.

NOV
10

GLOBAL FESTIVAL

November 10 • 1 - 5 pm • MSU Union

MSU international students representing dozens of countries around the world come together for Global Festival to share their culture and talents with exhibits and demonstrations, exciting and colorful performances, and interactive dance workshops.

NOV
15

LEARNING ABROAD CONFERENCE

November 15 • 12 - 6 pm • International Center

Co-sponsored by Education Abroad and International Students and Scholars, the Learning Abroad Conference (LAC) features presentations from students returned from international learning experiences and international students currently studying abroad here in East Lansing. Presentations include a variety of formats such as poetry, journal entries, music compositions, video, and more.

NOV
18

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

November 18-22, 2019

A joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education, International Education Week is an opportunity for universities across the national to celebrate the benefits of international education. Be on the lookout for various MSU events across campus that promote programs which prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences.

NOV
20

SPARTANS ABROAD DAY

November 20, 2019

Spartans Abroad Day is dedicated to recognize the positive impact of education abroad. Did you participate as a student? Did you direct a program? We want to hear about your experience and how it might encourage others to do the same! We'll be around campus today to speak with students, faculty, and staff about education abroad. Watch for stories on social media. Use the hashtag #SpartansAbroadDay to participate and follow along.